Skylark Holdings Co., Ltd.

Selected for the first time as a "Yearbook Member" in S&P Global's "The Sustainability Yearbook 2025."

Skylark Holdings Co., Ltd. has been selected for the first time as a "Yearbook Member" in "The Sustainability Yearbook 2025," published by U.S.-based S&P Global, a world-renowned ESG research and rating company in the corporate sustainability field.

Each year, S&P Global evaluates the sustainability of leading global companies across three dimensions: "Economic & Governance," "Environmental," and "Social." They recognize and feature particularly outstanding sustainability leaders in their "Sustainability Yearbook." For 2025, over 7,690 companies worldwide were assessed, with 780 companies (including 80 Japanese firms) being selected.

In the Restaurants & Leisure sector, where our company belongs, only five companies globally, including ours (and we are the only Japanese company), were selected.

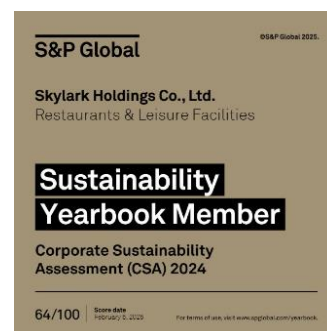

We will continue to strengthen our ESG initiatives and actively disseminate information, aiming to be a company trusted by all our stakeholders.
